Scheduling conflict. No one told me that 10/9 was the preferred date until now. Indeed, I was initially told that the date was not available.

If 10/8 does not work for you, I am offering 10/15 again if that helps

I am asking why not. It is much better for me, and we are the ones making an accommodation for your client.

At the hearing, it was initially represented to me and the Court that October 8 was the date. That is what I stated to my client when asked to confer about scheduling during the hearing. After conferring with my client, I was then told by Ben that October 9 was a possibility from your end. As I stated to the Court at that time, I had not discussed October 9 as an option with my client because I initially was told that Ben was not available on October 9. I stated that I would ask but did not know if that date was available.

I have since confirmed that October 9 is not available.

Why is Oct 9 "not an option"?

Good morning. Where do we stand on location so that I can inquire on my end?

October 9 is not an option. So I believe the issue is simply whether we all agree to Palm Beach of NY.

Please let me know.
